Hotel Il Pellicano Joins T Magazine's Salone del Mobile 2025 Party

Rome, April 8th, 2025 - Milan's design, art, and cultural crowd gathered at the enchanting Villa Necchi Campiglio for T Magazine's annual Salone del Mobile celebration, an evening where creativity, style, and Italian hospitality blend seamlessly.

Visionary designer Misha Kahn transformed Villa Necchi Campiglio with his bold, unconventional approach, blending organic forms with futuristic aesthetics to create a striking and immersive setting for the night's festivities.

Hotel Il Pellicano added its signature touch with a pop-up bar where superstar barman Federico Morosi crafted a selection of signature cocktails, including the Teller Negroni, the Patsy Spritz and the Zero Gravity, using premium ingredients from Bonaventura Maschio. Guests also enjoyed exceptional wines from Feudi di San Gregorio, celebrating the rich heritage of Italian viticulture.

This collaboration comes at a particularly special time, as Hotel Il Pellicano marks its 60th anniversary this June. With six decades of unparalleled hospitality, the hotel remains a beacon of timeless elegance, making this pop-up a fitting tribute to its legacy.
