HOTEL IL PELLICANO

Hotel Il Pellicano Marks 60 Years with an Unforgettable Celebration

Rome, June 9th, 2025, This past weekend, the legendary Hotel Il Pellicano celebrated its 60th anniversary with a spectacular gathering that brought together the hotel's closest friends, long-time patrons, and a host of illustrious guests for a weekend of effortless glamour and golden memories by the sea.

Hosted by Marie-Louise Sciò, CEO and Creative Director of Pellicano Hotels group, the celebration honoured the timeless soul of Hotel Il Pellicano—a place that continues to define laid-back luxury and Italian elegance.

"Hotel Il Pellicano is more than just a hotel—it's a living story, a second home for so many of us," said Sciò. "Celebrating 60 years surrounded by family and friends who've shaped its spirit was incredibly special."

The celebration unfolded in a mood subtly evocative of Hotel Il Pellicano's golden era—a quiet homage to the early decades that saw the hotel's founding. The weekend captured that unmistakable sense of carefree sophistication and understated glamour, echoing a time when the art of leisure was lived with elegance and ease.

The festivities began with an aperitivo and convivial dinner on Friday evening, setting the tone for a weekend filled with laughter, music, and coastal charm. Guests enjoyed a special menu that included the hotel's beloved classics.

Saturday started with a barefoot breakfast on the beach, presented in collaboration with Speedo, followed by a spirited doubles tennis tournament hosted by Superga. The casual elegance and playful spirit of the day continued to reflect the vintage inspiration woven through the celebration.

The grand finale—a seaside feast as the sun dipped below the horizon—gave way to a night of dancing under the stars, with DJ Paul Harris spinning. A celebration infused with that ineffable Pellicano magic that has captivated guests for six decades. Marie-Louise Sciò wore Haider Ackermann for Tom Ford, a look that epitomized the refined yet relaxed glamour of the evening.

The weekend's festivities were produced by event designer Matthew Robbins, who worked closely with the hotel's team to capture Hotel Il Pellicano's signature touch—warm, sophisticated, and dreamy to every detail.

Among the distinguished guests were beloved family and friends of the hotel each of whom shares a personal connection to the property and its enduring legacy. Their presence added to the intimate, joyful atmosphere that made the weekend truly unforgettable:

About Hotel Il Pellicano
In 1950, Patsy Daszel and Michael Graham created a romantic hideaway in a secret cove, giving birth to Il Pellicano. With famous guests like Charlie Chaplin and European royalty, the Tuscan home became renowned for its pristine cove, rugged cliffs, and enchanting atmosphere. In 1979, Roberto Sciò acquired the hotel, and today his daughter Marie-Louise, as the Creative Director and CEO, keeps Il Pellicano's spirit alive with contemporary creativity and timeless elegance. Nestled on the Tuscan coast in Italy, Hotel Il Pellicano, with its 50 rooms and suites, is a legendary destination known for its timeless elegance, impeccable service, and breath-taking surroundings. With its stunning views of the Mediterranean Sea, it offers an unforgettable experience of luxury, relaxation, and refined Italian hospitality.
